No temptation has over taken you except what is common to us all. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

WELCOME TO PEACE

Thank you for choosing to worship with us. If you're new here or have questions, please stop by the Got Questions Booth, across the hallway from the sanctuary. Visitors are welcome to pickup a Bible as our gift to you. Children are most welcome in the service, but should you need it, there is a nursery for infants through 3-years-old, and a cry room located near the entrance of the sanctuary.

Would you please take a minute to fill out the attendance card in the pew rack in front of you? If you are interested in membership at Peace you can leave your contact information on the attendance card or use the Big QR code on the back page of this bulletin. Follow that link and click Interested in Membership. Fill out that brief form and Kelsey Wilbern, our New Member Coordinator will reach out to assist you. Thank you & God bless your week!

How can someone as flawed as David be called a man after God's own heart?
 In Second Timothy 2:8, Paul delivers a nine-word version of his Gospel message. He uses a third of those few words to inform us that Jesus is "descended from David." Throughout the New Testament, Jesus' relationship to David is a major and recurring theme. One reason for this was to prove Christ's Messiahship. Everyone knew that the Messiah would be descended from David. But this also serves to associate Jesus with David, who was called a man after God's own heart.

- Holy Communion: As Lutheran Christians, we believe, teach and confess that the risen Lord Jesus Christ is actually present in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. He gives us His true body and blood in, with and under the bread and wine for the forgiveness of our sins. This teaching of the real presence of Christ is central to our celebration of this sacrament. Therefore, we practice fellowship or close communion—meaning we believe those approaching the altar should share this core belief. Grape juice is available in the center cup of the tray. Gluten free wafers also available. Please speak with a pastor or elder if you have questions.

Are you fascinated by the history of the Ark of the Covenant? Here is the first book of an historical fiction novel series that will surely delight you: To Dwell Among Cedars by Connilyn Cossette (F Cos). Eliora, a young Philistine girl, and her brother escape their homeland and find refuge among the Israelites after she helps rescue the Ark of the Covenant. Embracing her new faith and family, Eliora struggles with her past identity and the tensions between her loyalties. When a determined warrior seeks to restore the Ark to its rightful place, Eliora is forced to confront her fears and discover the true meaning of belonging and faith.

Ushers Needed: Calling all men, women, & families! We need your help in filling out our usher teams at both the 8a & 10:30a services. Job description includes greeting people & handing out bulletins as they enter the sanctuary, helping find seating as needed, ushering people forward to communion & doing a quick pew clean up after the service. We try to schedule teams every 4-6 weeks depending on the church year season. If you can serve in this way, please call the church office 3.424.4454.
