- Holy Communion: As Lutheran Christians, we believe, teach and confess that the risen Lord Jesus Christ is actually present in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. He gives us His true body and blood in, with and under the bread and wine for the forgiveness of our sins. This teaching of the real presence of Christ is central to our celebration of this sacrament. Therefore, we practice fellowship or close communion—meaning we be-lieve those approaching the altar should share this core belief. Grape juice is available in the center cup of the tray. Gluten free wafers also available.

Where Yesterday Lives by Karen Kingsbury (F Kin) follows Ellen Barrett, a successful journalist and believer, as she returns home to Little Traverse Bay, MI after her father's death and confronts painful family tensions, unresolved grief, and guestions about her past and marriage. Through a heartfelt journey of reconciliation and renewed faith, the novel reminds Christian readers of God's healing power, the importance of forgiveness, and the hope found in trusting Him with both yesterday and today.
