WELCOME TO PEACE

Thank you for choosing to worship with us. If you're new here or have questions, please stop by the Got Questions Booth, across the hallway from the sanctuary. Visitors are welcome to pickup a Bible as our gift to you. Children are most welcome in the service, but should you need it, there is a nursery for infants through 3-years-old, and a cry room located near the entrance of the sanctuary. Would you please take a minute to fill out the attendance card in the pew rack in front of you? If you are interested in membership at Peace you can leave your contact information on the attendance card or use the Big QR code on the back page of this bulletin. Follow that link and click Interested in Membership. Fill out that brief form and Kelsey Wilbern, our New Member Coordinator will reach out to assist you. Thank you & God bless your week!

VBS: June 8-12

We NEED volunteers to sign up to help with VBS. We are looking for many adults to help lead groups of 5 or so kids. The number of helpers determines the number of kids we can take. Please talk with Amy or sign up at the coffee bar credenza ASAP!

Receivers for those with hearing loss are available from an usher.

- Holy Communion: As Lutheran Christians, we believe, teach and confess that the risen Lord Jesus Christ is actually present in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. He gives us His true body and blood in, with and under the bread and wine for the forgiveness of our sins. This teaching of the real presence of Christ is central to our celebration of this sacrament. Therefore, we practice fellowship or close communion—meaning we believe those approaching the altar should share this core belief. Grape juice is available in the center cup of the tray. Gluten free wafers also available.

Library (All Through the Night by Davis Bunn (F Bun) is a suspense novel about Wayne Grusza, a former special-ops man who gets pulled into helping a group of seniors who were scammed out of their retirement savings. He investigates a high-security island estate and uncovers a larger mystery involving fraud, danger, and people who may not be what they seem. Along the way, a young lawyer named Tatyana becomes involved, and the story blends action, romance, and faith-based themes. The book follows Wayne as he faces both outside enemies and his own wounded past while trying to protect others.

Orphan Grain Train is in need of a facility for collecting donations. Looking for the Denver-Metro area about mid-May. The most important requirements are at least 1400 square feet of space, that is heated/cooled, on one level, and has parking access for receiving and loading packed boxes and other equipment. Other requirements are bathrooms, water access, electrical outlets, and trash receptacles, with a rental fee of up to $600/month. If you can help with this need, please call Daryl Meske, OGT Coordinator/Colorado West, 303-746-3951. And THANK YOU for all your generous donations. We appreciate them!

Did you know that your generous support of Peace also helps to support the Rocky Mountain District of the LCMS? The District supports many things including missions and staffs of churches around our region. Check out their website for information on the missions they are working on now at rm.lcms.org. Did you know there is a congregation in Denver that serves the Indian/Pakistani community? They are also heavily involved in supporting congregations like Peace when they need to call a new staff member.
